DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 9-33 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 1,2,5,7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japan. Japan appears to show a mercury recovery process from broken fluorescent bulbs including applicant's claimed temperatures.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japan. Japan shows a fluorescent lamp mercury recovery process in which fluorescent lamps are broken, heated, and cooled to recover liquid mercury. The particular temperatures used to perform this function would have been well within the scope of one skilled in the art in order to recover the liquid mercury once the basic Japan process was known. The remaining claim limitations would also have been obvious as they solve no stated problems. For example, the broken piece size would have been obvious based on the original size of the lamps.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
